

MEET THE GRUBBLERS

Written by Sarah Louise

Illustrated by
Amy Ashworth

Key selling points

- Includes four beautiful hand-drawn illustrations by Amy Ashworth.
- A charming story for both young children and their parents.
- Meet the Grubblers is the perfect bedtime read featuring time-travel, magic and new-found friends.

About the book

Meet Emily, who finds life hard when school suddenly closes and her family and friends can no longer visit.

Suddenly, Emily finds herself whisked into a magical world where she meets Lucy who is on a quest to find her missing cousin. On their quest the pair meet the crafty yet comical grubblers. How helpful will they be?

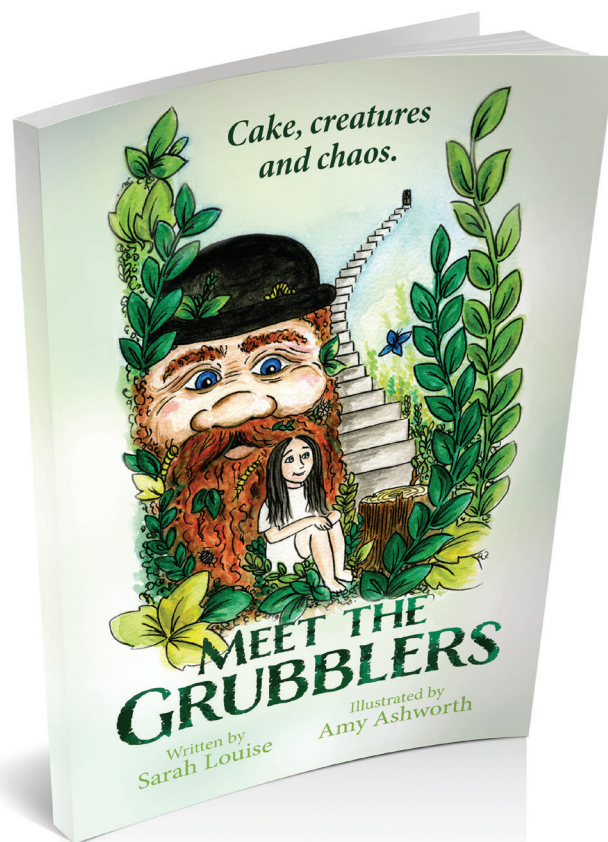

What is the strange connection between these new-found friends? Join Emily and Lucy for a time-travelling feast with lots of delicious fruit cake!

About the author

Sarah Louise has always had a talent for connecting with and inspiring children of all ages. Having worked in schools for twenty-five years, Sarah has now expanded her educational expertise into being an author. She hopes to provide exciting and page-turning stories that capture the minds of the younger generation of today.

Sarah has three adult children of her own, a beautiful granddaughter and a much-loved cockapoo. She resides in the county of Wiltshire.

Find out more at sarahlouisenovels.com

Cake, creatures and chaos

Book information

Publication Date	13 December 2021
ISBN	978-1-80042-158-5
Illustrations	4
Dimensions	190 x 120mm
Extent	84 pages
RRP	£8.99
BIC	YFH
Rights	Worldwide

Bookseller and library discounts available
Published by SilverWood Books

Available via your Ingram iPage account,
Gardners or Central Books

 facebook.com/silverwoodbooks

 @SilverWoodBooks

 @silverwood_books