

CHILDREN OF THE CHIEFTAIN BOUND FOR HOME

MICHAEL E WILLS

Key selling points

- The fourth and final book in the thrilling Children of the Chieftain series.
- Follow Ahl and his crew as they plan to escape following three years in the service of the Greeks, navigating rough seas and robbers on their way home.
- An action-packed adventure for readers aged 8–12.

About the book

After three years in the service of the emperor of the Greeks, Ahl and his Viking friends have become very rich. Now the crew longs to return home with their wealth, their problem is that the emperor will not permit them to leave. They make a daring plan to escape. The route home is perilous as they navigate uncharted seas. They must overcome robbers, storms and hostile strangers as they seek their way back to the Northlands with the riches which they have earned.

About the author

Michael E Wills worked in Sweden as a teacher of English as a Foreign Language for thirteen years, which first sparked his interest in Scandinavian history and culture. In June 2015 Michael published the first Children of the Chieftain novel, a quartet of Viking adventure stories for young readers.

Today Michael works part-time as Ombudsman for English UK, the national association of English language providers, and spends at least two months a year sailing his boat, which is currently in Scandinavia. You can find out more about Michael and the books he has written by visiting www.michaelwills.eu.

A Viking adventure for young readers

Book information

Publication Date	6 February 2019
ISBN	978-1-78132-688-6
Dimensions	216 x 140mm
Extent	144 pages
RRP	£7.99
BIC	YFT
Rights	Worldwide
Ebooks	.epub and .mobi

Bookseller and library discounts available
Published by SilverWood Books
Available to order from Bertrams

 facebook.com/silverwoodbooks

 @SilverWoodBooks

 @silverwood_books