

Peter Goatman

Bunzel

the Bashful Bunny

Key selling points

- A beautifully illustrated story about a smart bunny and her fluffy family.
- This book sees Bunzel grow in confidence as she faces a nerve-wracking challenge.
- Join bashful Bunzel and her boisterous brother Jasper as they take on Bunny Mastermind.

About the book

The first in an exciting upcoming series of bunny books featuring Bunzel and her family.

Find out how Bunzel, the most famous baby bunny of all time, ended up with her own statue in St Petersburg, Russia.

Follow Bunzel's adventure as she and her brother face the terror of The Black Chair and compete for a round-the-world trip in Bunny Mastermind.

This story is inspired by the author's granddaughter's dwarf rabbit called Bunzel.

About the author

Peter Goatman was born in Bristol during the Second World War. The inspiration for his writing comes from the bedtime stories his father told him as a child. He cites his brother Michael as the catalyst for his career as an author, who, after finding a bumblebee in his garden and naming it 'Bodkin Bumble', provided the hero for some of Peter's earliest stories. Fifteen years after retiring and seventy stories later, Peter has decided to publish his first book: Bunzel the Bashful Bunny.

Book information

| | |
|------------------|-------------------|
| Publication Date | 7 March 2019 |
| ISBN | 978-1-78132-854-5 |
| Illustrations | 22 |
| Dimensions | 280 x 216mm |
| Extent | 36 pages |
| RRP | £10.99 |
| BIC | YF |
| Rights | Worldwide |

Bookseller and library discounts available
Published by SilverWood Books
Available to order from Bertrams

