

Girl Cop

SANDY
OSBORNE

The life and loves of an officer on the beat

From the moment she takes her first step inside the Police station in her brand new Dr Marten boots, PC Sally Gentle's roller coaster ride in this male dominated environment begins.

Girl Cop follows Sally's tentative start in an eye opening career which offers her some extraordinary experiences ranging from fascinating, hilarious and emotive to the downright incredible.

Will the spark between Sally and her tutor constable Alex ever be ignited? Will summary justice be served on the station bully? Will Sally complete the Bennett's Lane Challenge to become 'an honorary bloke'?

About the Author

Sandy Osborne is a serving police officer. She began her career as a PE teacher but soon traded her hockey stick for a truncheon and has recently received her twenty year Police Long Service and Good Conduct Award.

When her local paper printed an unflattering picture of her in a charity marathon, Sandy felt compelled to respond with an amusing account of her training programme. This led to regular contributions and a taste of national publications, and her writing has never stopped. Girl Cop is a drama based on real events in the British Police Force.

'Girl Cop really captures the essence of that early 90s Police Station life.'
A.C.C. Olivia Pinkney

A percentage from the sale of this book will be donated to the Police Dependants' Trust and St Peter's Hospice.

Title	Girl Cop
Author	Sandy Osborne
ISBN	Paperback 978-1-78132-066-2 / ePub eBook 978-1-78132-067-9
RRP	Paperback £9.99 / eBook £3.49
Category	Fiction
	216mm x 140mm
	280 pages

Bookseller and library discounts

Available to order from most wholesalers or directly from the publisher

SilverWood Books 30 Queen Charlotte Street Bristol BS1 4HJ info@silverwoodbooks.co.uk

