

LUKE PEMBERTON HOW TO See RELIGION DIFFERENTLY

Key selling points

- From the author of How to Find Your Way Out When In Despair and How To Sort Your Head Out.
- This easy-to-read book contains over 200 hand-drawn illustrations.
- The author, a committed believer for many years, walks us through his journey from belief to full-blown scepticism.

About the book

Ever felt confused about religious belief but reluctant to question it? Ever considered that religious beliefs may in fact be less than wholesome, but weren't sure how to ponder them? Well this book will help.

Pick up a copy of How to See Religion Differently today and see why it's better to be an amazing primate than a fallen angel, why religion is like a teddy bear, why God would be unfriended on social media today, and why religion should fall foul of advertising standard guidelines.

About the author

Luke Pemberton is an independent author of How to Find Your Way Out When In Despair: a Guide to Rediscovering Your Self-Worth, and How To Sort Your Head Out: Build Your Self-Esteem by Understanding Your Emotional Fears, in which he maps out his own experience of recovering from emotional despair through a series of over 400 drawings. This is his third book. Prior to attempting the perils of writing for a living, he worked in the political department of an international diplomatic organisation dealing with armed conflicts and other international issues.

How Questioning Your Beliefs Can Lead to a Healthy Mind

Book information

Publication Date	14 July 2018
ISBN	978-1-78132-793-7
Illustrations	244
Dimensions	210 x 148mm
Extent	144 pages
RRP	£8.99
BIC	VS
Rights	Worldwide
Ebooks	.epub and .mobi

Bookseller and library discounts available
Published by SilverWood Books
Available to order from Bertram

 facebook.com/silverwoodbooks

 @SilverWoodBooks

 @silverwood_books