About the book

Have you ever tried to conjure up the perfect man? It's not as easy as it might seem, even if you are a powerful and intelligent witch.

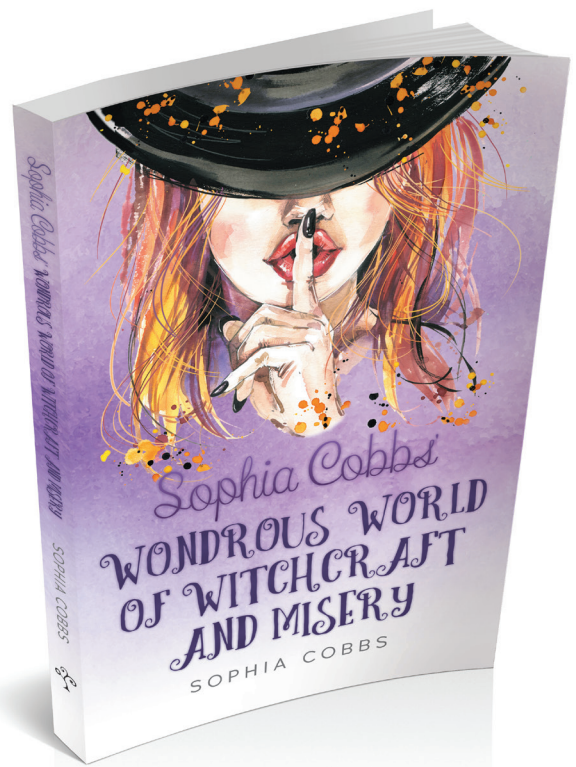

Petulia and Miss Level find out that there is more to finding Mr Right than just a flick of the wand, and poof...there he is! Their latest attempt is gorgeous – as long as you don't mind the horns and the singing, which of course they do. But when they try to fix him they run into some serious problems. To make things even more complicated, a mysterious and handsome stranger appears. But there is something not quite right about him either...

Will Petulia and Miss Level be able to fix everything and can they use their witchcraft to overcome misery?

About the author

Sophia Cobbs was born in 1982 in Dendermonde, Belgium. She has always had a fondness for writing. In high school she wrote poems and short stories but mostly kept them to herself. This is her first novel.

When she isn't writing or directing, she is doing one of two things: her day job as Office Manager for an IT company, or scouring wine tastings with her long-term boyfriend.

The perfect man?
That's asking for trouble
