

The Tanglewood Affair

LIN TREADGOLD

Key selling points

- Author of Goodbye Henrietta Street, which was nominated for the RNA Joan Hessayon Award.
- Mystery and romance surround this family saga.
- Set in the 1970s amidst the Devon countryside.

About the book

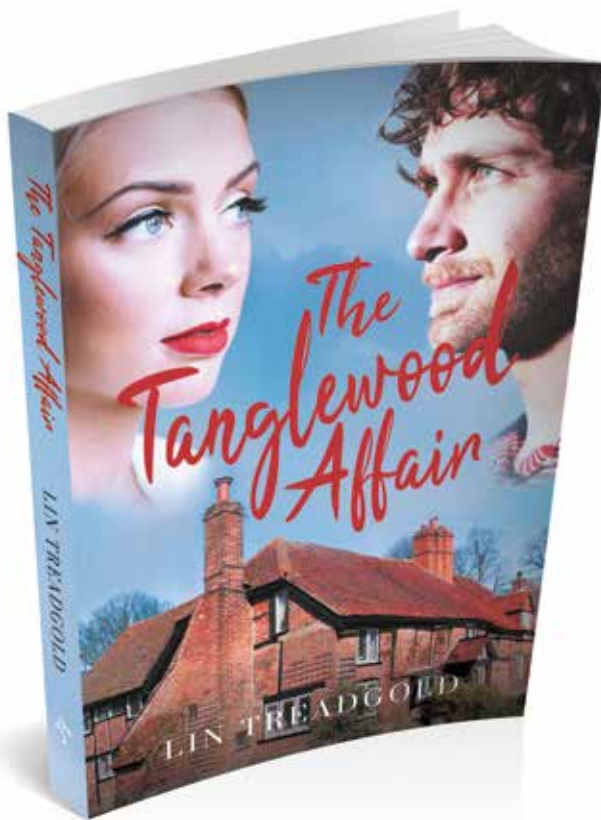

Lord Augustus Hannings has disappeared, following the drowning of his wife in the lake at Tanglewood Farm.

Ten years on in 1976, a young woman, Jess Stamp, rents a room at the farm, living alongside the other residents, who are known as 'The Household Cavalry.' Jess is drawn into an unlikely alliance with the herdsman, and together they set out to solve the mystery of her landlady Connie's clandestine lifestyle and the disappearance of her wealthy cousin, Lord Hannings.

Caught up in a world of intrigue and secrets, cults and romance, can Jess survive at the farm amidst all the uncertainties surrounding her?

About the author

In 2015 Lin Treadgold returned to the UK after spending 15 years in the Netherlands. Now retired, she lives in the heart of Devon with her husband and their Jack Russell dog, Dylan. She is currently working on her third novel.

A novel of secrets,
passion, intrigue
and love

Book information

Publication Date	4 September 2018
ISBN	978-1-78132-784-5
Dimensions	203 x 133mm
Extent	306 pages
RRP	£9.99
BIC	FA
Rights	Worldwide
Ebooks	.epub and .mobi

Bookseller and library discounts available
Published by SilverWood Books
Available to order from Bertrams

facebook.com/silverwoodbooks

@SilverWoodBooks

@silverwood_books