

Women of Spirit

Volume Two

Susie Mackie

Key selling points

- The second volume of the uplifting and eye-opening collection of stories of real women who overcame all obstacles to achieve success.
- A book designed to inspire women in times of heartbreak, loneliness or pain.
- This is a book for those who believe that failure is not an option.

About the book

Among the many incredible stories in this anthology, readers will learn how women defied the odds and built successful businesses, how they discovered that being widowed was not the end of their life, and how they refused to allow a hostage situation and childhood sexual abuse to define their lives.

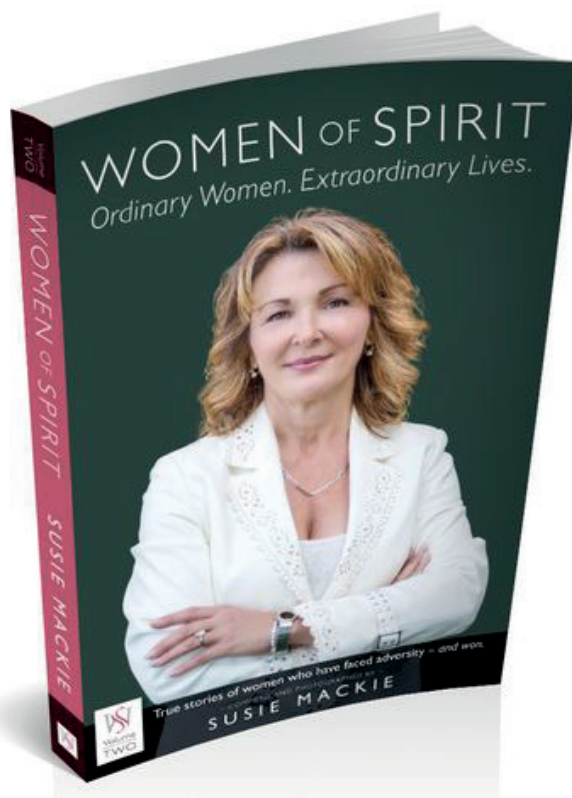

Women of Spirit documents various aspects of the human condition and is full of guidance and inspiration. However harrowing, every story has a happy ending to bring about hope and courage.

"Books so full of discovery and enlightenment, they literally give you goosebumps. They are such a feel-good factor in a world that could honestly use this. A must-have for both men and women." Henny Maltby

About the author

Susie's work as a photographer and author reflects her heartfelt passion that all women deserve to feel empowered and beautiful. Drawing on her personal and professional experiences, her purpose is for women to know their real worth and to encourage them towards self-empowerment.

In October 2018 a special award, 'Advocate for Women', was created for Susie by Ladies First Professional Development.

“A must-have for both men and women.”
